Special Notices.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

C. A. BOUTELLE, Editor.

All business papers should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr, and communications intended for publication should be addressed "Editor of Wig and Courier."

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1887.

The Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky is about 40 years of age, an able lawyer and a brilliant campaign speaker.

The women who have held positions in the government departments are being made to give way to men. Women cannot vote for Cleveland and hence have no standing with this reform Administration.

The St. Louis Republican, a Democratic sheet, finds the political situation most discouraging and says "Within a year of the campaign the situation is a grave one for the Democracy." Our contemporary is most assuredly correct.

The Democrats in those States whose electoral votes go Republican, are as a rule, tolerably solid for Mr. Cleveland. It is a mighty stupid administration that cannot command the support of its party in the States where it is in the minority.

The claim of Democratic gains in the recent Indiana local elections is professedly ridiculous by the Indianapolis Journal. It says that "the Republicans held their own almost everywhere and in some places made large gains."

The Macon Telegraph, a southern Democratic paper, remarks of the Kentucky platform: "As we understand it, Mr. Watterson, Grover Cleveland is a blighted poor President now, but will do better if he gets the second term. Doing better in this case means a still greater disregard of his reform pledges. Mr. Cleveland cannot hope much farther in that direction than he has already gone."

A Democratic organ gives the result of a canvass of Democratic editors and chairmen of county committees in Pennsylvania to show Cleveland's popularity, and says the preponderance of opinion is that Pennsylvania will instruct for Cleveland. As I am informed is good for a routing Repub. in majority in the next campaign just who the Democrats of the State may favor is a matter of mighty little importance.

The charge preferred by the Ex-Confederate General against General Sheridan, that he was never allowed for acts during the war to be true, but Rosser should remember that Sheridan, like the rest of the Union heroes, has stubbornly refused to believe that there was anything that called for atonement.—Philadelphia Press.

The abettive theory however seems to have taken a strong hold upon the Administration organs like the Washington Star which rush to the defense of Jeff Davis whenever he is referred to as a traitor.

It beats all creation how zealously some of the Democratic organs that insisted upon the genuineness of the Moore letter against Garfield are denouncing the current forgery against Parnell. The villainy was the same in both cases, but in 1880 the Democrats took the position which the London Times and the Times take today—namely, that anything, even forgery, is fair in politics. The Democrats learned, however, that fraud and forgery were dangerous campaign weapons, and the party will inevitably arrive at the same conclusion.

The Brooklyn Citizen thinks that Republicans are afraid the Democrats will re-nominate Mr. Cleveland. Why should they be afraid of Cleveland? Even Mr. George W. Curtis, one of Cleveland's champions in 1884, does not think he can be reelected if he is again the standard bearer of his party. The Democratic candidate was elected by 1,100 votes in the last campaign, and to have a divided party behind him to say nothing of the disgust of the men who were sincere in supporting him as a reformer.

We have received a copy of the second number of The Enclosed Pages published every Friday at Endicott, N. Y., by Hon. J. P. O'Hara ex member of Congress from that District and one of the two colored Representatives in the 48th Congress. Mr. O'Hara is a gentleman of ability and a Republican of influence, and we are glad to see his new paper indicating so much enterprise and prosperity. In the issue at hand the editor notes as a new step in the utilization of the "color line," the recent dining of the Queen of the Sandwich Islands at the White House.

The Philadelphia Record says the statement that the free trade Democrats are "hounding the great protectionist" Mr. Randall, is rare territory. This is a new version. Popular opinion is that the free trade Democrats take their hits off to Mr. Randall instead of attempting to hound him to great extent. When Congress convenes we shall see the course of these free traders rapidly disappear while Mr. Randall will continue to run things to suit himself. We should like to see them brace up once but there is very little prospect of it.

Mr. Theodore Roosevelt gives the following graphic description of the Mugwump organ that prate so much about representing only "the best" in politics. "There is a certain section of the independent press that in every issue shows its hatred of the Republican party and its servile adulation of Mr. Cleveland. They aim to be independent, but their independence is of a thoroughly feminine cast. Theirs is not the anger of a man, but the high pitched screech of the virago and the common scold. They talk overmuch of political honesty and they reserve the full weight of their rancorous malice for honest men who differ from them on public questions. Their design is to misrepresent and belittle all the decent members of the party to which they formerly belonged. They practice every form of untruth, they omit part of the truth, they sometimes deliberately and frankly falsify, but most frequently make use of every available form of impudent and insinuating. They measure policies by the lowest level; they speak of the best men in the same terms they use for the Aldermen who have just been sent to Sing-Sing. They undoubtedly have more to do than any other body of men in this city in keeping honest men out of politics. Wherever they differ with a man on a public question these miscreants specimens of American chicanery assail him with a total lack of principle, and endeavor to make him and others feel that it is impossible for a decent man to devote his time to the service of the State."

MAINE NEWS.

FROM ROCKLAND.

The sons of Veterans.
ROCKLAND, May 16.—Colonel Thomas Gibney, the Maine Division Sons of Veterans, announces that appointments have been made by Surgeon J. Edward Martin, Lieutenant Charles L. Witham, Lieutenant Adjutant Edward K. Gould, Lieutenant Quartermaster J. H. McCloud, and Adjutant Inspector Willis A. Pease of Portland; Judge Advocate General J. Hatch of Springvale; and Rockland Electric Light.

The Rockland electric light and gas company organized with the choice of the following board of directors: A. D. Pease, V. C. G. W., W. S. Berry, T. J. Wood and W. S. White. The last named was chosen clerk and treasurer, and he will be put in this season and perhaps will be put in Washington. If they affected the Premier of Canada they would have to be answered. They ought not to be put in Washington.

It Might Well be Answered.
that the negotiations might go on and be disposed of before Lord Lansdowne would be informed of the details. But for the eviction of large bodies of poor people from the estates, Lord Lansdowne is responsible, and the whys and wherefores of the same must be explained in any other case. The fact is that he is Governor-General of Canada supplies no remedy for silence. The question is agitating the English speaking people of Great Britain, Canada and the United States, and little heed is given by whom the agitation is strongest, about it. Very serious accusations have been made, if not true, by the Premier of Canada which will be answered. They ought

To Be Met and Answered.
when the Government of the Governor-General of Canada. The question is are these things true? O'Brien in Toronto is no answer; threats of the Orangemen of Kingston not to permit him to enter the city is no answer. The same class of people were once the mainstay of the Prince of Wales, from the time of King George III. O'Brien's allegations would still exist, and would still have to be met, whether O'Brien is refused entrance or speech in the cities of Ontario or not. It must be confessed that the amount of light cast on that side of the controversy is not great; there is much abuse of O'Brien but it is a plentiful lack of facts.

What Is Said Just Now.
is a circumstantial report from the landlord's point of view of his relations with his tenants. As Royal commissions have investigated such matters and the people of the British Isles are familiar with similar subjects for many years, and the press and electors have such questions constantly before them, it cannot be said that the dispute is one of private character. It is unfortunately very much of a public head and the sooner both sides are heard from the better.

THE NEW HAVEN MURDERERS.
They are Taken to New Haven.
NEW YORK, May 16.—The burglars Taylor and Chamberlain, who confessed to the murder of Mrs. Ernst, the New Haven saloon keeper, were taken to New Haven yesterday. One of the men was released this morning with the papers necessary for his transfer. Inspector Barnes detailed Detective Cosgrave of his own staff to accompany the New Haven men, on the way the prisoners displayed the same cool and apparently unconcerned manner which has characterized them since their arrest and on the way to the depot Chamberlain asked the officer to stop and let him get his boots at 5.

The officers could see that the Italian brusky rubbed the brash over the boots of the men, and the latter were marked: "Well, I guess this will be the last shirt I'll get in New York." There was a large crowd in the station and the tougher element from the outer parts of the city looked on Chamberlain with considerable admiration after his bravado speech.

JACOB SHARP'S TRIAL.
None of the Jury Yet Selected.
NEW YORK, May 16.—Not one in twenty of the people who sought to gain admission in the Court of Oyer and Terminer where Jacob Sharp was to be placed on trial this morning succeeded in getting in. The door was guarded by police and only those who had business in court was allowed to enter. Enough, however, got in to fill the room. Judge Barrett who recently tried the double homicide at Boston, was present, and the court room this morning his face had a troubled and careworn expression. He placed his hat on the table and conversed with his counsel, Ex-Judge Wm. Fullerton, Ex-Judge Homer A. Nelson and Attorney Stearns, on the table of the prosecution officers sat District Attorney Martin.

At 11:15 Mr. Martin moved that the trial of Jacob Sharp proceed. The District Attorney stated that Kerr and Richmond, who were indicted, had been held to be guilty and he was prepared to go on with the present case. Clerks Sparks asked Sharp if he was ready for trial. Lawyer Stickney replied for him that the empanelling of jurors was begun. Only 32 out of 100 of those who were drawn were called up to serve, but on one ground or another, prior opinions, prejudice against the reformers or lack of intelligence, all were excused.

ONLY ONE JURYMAN SECURED.
After nearly four hours of adjournment the jury was finally impaneled. Noting the strenuous efforts of the defense, Mr. Stickney adjourned the trial to Monday morning. The trial was continued with a mile of the courtroom. Mrs. Maria Cruz was married in 1882 and old Mrs. Stickney, widow of the late Mr. Stickney, who died in a hotel shop and is a quiet, benevolent man, has long been considered the most prominent when on a peripatetic tour.

LABOR FROM HELL.
Workers at the Chinese Quarter.
NEW YORK, May 16.—About thirty persons were found in the Chinese quarter last night. Loss, $50,000.

MASSACHUSETTS.
Fatal Drought by the Sea.

DOUGLASS, May 16.—George M. Barnard, 70, a well-known Bostonian, fatally injured in a heavy street crossing of the Second and Lowell Street this morning while walking in a jumble of debris. The door was shattered by a bullet and he was killed in a jumble of debris. Nine cars date for the box were excused for lack of ordinary intelligence or inability to understand English. One made the most of his position as post clerk and claimed his privilege of exemption from jury duty. The box was closed and the court room this morning his face had a troubled and careworn expression. He placed his hat on the table and conversed with his counsel, Ex-Judge Wm. Fullerton, Ex-Judge Homer A. Nelson and Attorney Stearns, on the table of the prosecution officers sat District Attorney Martin.

At 11:15 Mr. Martin moved that the trial of Jacob Sharp proceed. ONLY ONE JURYMAN SECURED.
After nearly four hours of adjournment the jury was finally impaneled and qualified. Noting the strenuous efforts of the defense, Mr. Stickney adjourned the trial to Monday morning. The trial was continued with a mile of the courtroom. Mrs. Maria Cruz was married in 1882 and old Mrs. Stickney, widow of the late Mr. Stickney, who died in a hotel shop and is a quiet, benevolent man, has long been considered the most prominent when on a peripatetic tour.

THE CHURCH AND THE PEOPLE.
Archbishop Carigan on Popular Falacies.
NEW YORK, May 16.—A Bishop Carigan made his annual visitation to the Archdiocese of Boston this morning. The Archbishop spoke on popular errors which he said were widely prevalent at the present time. The first of these was the idea that private ownership of land is a sin. The second was the Archbishop's characterization of a fallacy against both philosophy and common sense and against the teachings of the Catholic church. Those who claimed that man, like sun and air, was free, the gift of God, and equally so property, all overlooked the great difference that the sun and air did not become private property as can land. He declared that every man had the right to acquire by honest means as much property as he could, and that the Indian's claim to the land was the dangerous result of a fallacy and folly. He also said that the idea was in direct opposition to the decree of the Pope and that those who favored it knew that they were infringing on the ordinances of God.

The third error which the Archbishop had the right to command and to obeyed only in matters of faith and morals, and when speaking as infallible, this idea was de creed by the Vatican Council who had ordered that the Pope should issue a decree that the Church had a right to command the laity to obey the commandments of the Pope. The Pope, however, does not interfere in matters of politics, unless Government interferes in matters of religion and war. The Archbishop is to be obeyed to the Government under which they live.

RHODE ISLAND.
No Whiskey to be Sold to Soldiers.
NEW YORK, May 16.—The Sutler at Fort Adams has received orders from the Commandant not to furnish the troops with whiskey or other liquor. The order is due to a disturbance raised by a soldier who was sold while under arrest.

NEW YORK.
Believe on the Other Side of the Earth.
New York, May 16.—Patrick Flanagan, sexton of the St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City, caused considerable excitement to-day at the Hamilton ferry across the East River. He was a passenger with some friends from Atlantic and got in a row with two other passengers, striking out his revolver and firing it into the law, making a severe wound. Another bullet struck him in the hand, the keeper who assisted John Schroeder by striking him in the nose with the butt of his revolver. Flanagan was overpowered and arrested.

FOREIGN NEWS.
A New Prince of Bulgaria.
BUCHAREST, May 16.—It is reported here that the Bulgarian Regents are meditating the proclamation of King Charles of Roumania as Prince of Bulgaria, virtually making of the Dauphin Province one kingdom.

THE WEATHER.
WA DEPT. OFFICE CHINE SIGNAL OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., May 17.—(A. M.)
Indications—For Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont: Fair weather; 15°; variable winds generally southwardly.

O'BRIEN IN CANADA.

LOCAL MATTERS.

News About the Capital.

A Japanese Youth in the Naval Academy.

MONTREAL, May 16.—The Herald, which bitterly opposed O'Brien's "invasion" of Canada, has shown a decided change of front and to-day comes out in the following edition: "It says: 'It would be only proper but it seems absolutely necessary that the statements made by O'Brien in regard to the treatment of Luggocourtaens should be met at negated, if possible.' Lord Lansdowne does not appear to have had any communication with the agent and representatives of the two agents."

that the negotiations might go on and be disposed of before Lord Lansdowne would be informed of the details. But for the eviction of large bodies of poor people from the estates, Lord Lansdowne is responsible, and the whys and wherefores of the same must be explained in any other case. The fact is that he is Governor-General of Canada supplies no remedy for silence. The question is agitating the English speaking people of Great Britain, Canada and the United States, and little heed is given by whom the agitation is strongest, about it.

Looking for Payment of Confederate Bonds.

Information has been received here that the option previously offered by English Confederates to the American government should be met at negated, if possible. Lord Lansdowne does not appear to have had any communication with the agent and representatives of the two agents.
